MERRY CHRISTMAS CHATHAM!

In its seventh year, St. Andrew's annual Christmas concert has quickly become a Chatham tradition. From the Polar Express, to the story of Charles Dickens's Christmas Carol, these concerts have presented some of the most beloved Christmas stories of the last century. Once again, it will feature the full music program at St. Andrew's, as well as many members of the community. Wonder what Devon has up his sleeve this year? Better come and find out!

COMBO FEST!

A first for Chatham-Kent, Combo Fest promises to be an exciting evening of music by a variety of instrumental combinations. What is a combo you ask? Well anything more than two musicians. From a trio, to a quartet, to a quintet, to even bigger, this evening will present some of the best instrumental music for brass, woodwinds, strings, and everything in between. It will include many members of the Chatham-Kent community.

THE SULTANS OF STRING

Three-time JUNO Award nominees, Sultans of String creates "Energetic and exciting music from a band with talent to burn!" Thrilling their audiences with their genre-hopping selections of Celtic reels, flamenco, gypsy-jazz, Arabic, Cuban and South Asian rhythms, the group celebrates musical fusion and human creativity with warmth and virtuosity. Acoustic strings meet with electronic wizardry to create layers and depth of sound, while world rhythms excite audiences to their feet with the irresistible need to dance.

ONE WORLD: MANY VOICES

Music has always been seen as a universal language around the world. This concert will showcase a plethora of different languages and cultures sung between different choral groups. Please join St. Andrew's Chancel Choir as they welcome other choral groups from Chatham-Kent and the surrounding area. Come celebrate choral music from around the world as we clap off our season.
